

SCENE CHICAGO WEDDINGS

Southern-inspired fare by the House of Blues.

BROOKE NITZKIN AND JASON FOWLER, MARCH 22, 2008

THE COUPLE: Brooke Nitzkin and Jason Fowler—veterinarian meets U. of C. student. THE VENUE: The legendary House of Blues music hall. THE DETAILS: For Brooke and Jason, there was no better way to celebrate the first day of the rest of their lives than by having the first-ever wedding at the House of Blues! Before serving its purpose as a place for guests to rock out to the beats of the Larry King Orchestra, Barbara Moss Events set the stage with vibrant flowers by the Flower Firm and a large chuppah on the dance floor for the ceremony. THE PARTY: In keeping with the rock theme, the bridal party walked out to “Life is a Highway” by Tom Cochrane, while the bride glided in to “Crazy Love” by Van Morrison. —REBECCA TARAS

A campy shot of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler in the H.O.B. commode.

The concert-style environs for the Larry King Orchestra-fueled fête.

A paw prints-themed cake by Sweet Mandy B's.

The groomsmen wore matching Converse Chuck Taylors.

PHOTOS BY RICK AGUILAR STUDIOS