

SCENE CHICAGO WEDDINGS

The Grand Ballroom at the Trump International Hotel & Tower.

LISA VOEGEL AND MARK ROGERS, SEPTEMBER 20, 2008

THE COUPLE: Lisa Voegel (vice president of Guaranty National Title Company) and Mark Rogers (engineer consultant at Ernst & Young) THE VENUE: Trump International Hotel & Tower. THE DETAILS: Ali Phillips from Engaging Events by Ali rolled out the red carpet (literally) for guests at this Casablanca-inspired extravaganza. THE PARTY: Partygoers dined on succulent beef tenderloin, halibut and Maine lobster, followed by red-velvet cake with dark-chocolate frosting by Take the Cake. The Larry King Orchestra cued up sweet sounds for guests reeling around the icy-white, monogrammed dance floor. For the surprise after party, Kehoe Designs transported the group to a Moroccan hideaway in the Skyline Room, complete with a belly dancer and a view of the Gold Coast. —COURTNEY HILDENBRAND

An orchid-strung, Swarovski-crystal design element by Kehoe Designs.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rogers. (The bride wore Badgley Mischka to the ceremony and Monique Lhuillier to the reception.)

Chili miso-glazed diver scallops.

Elegant damask menu cards by Lele Designs.

PHOTOS BY ROSALIND WEDDINGS